

Cultural Narratives: Selections Magazine exhibition

Date: 24 February – 10 March 2018

Location: Alserkal Avenue, warehouse 61

Drawing on centuries of tradition and know-how, artists from the Arab and Persian worlds have created works that reflect their rich culture and transcend regional boundaries. This new, extensive collection of artworks by established and emerging talents from the region provides a breathtaking visual map of the Arab and Persian art worlds, with 160 unique works from Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, Iran, Tunis, Egypt, Palestine, UAE and Sudan. As it travels around the globe, the show shines the spotlight on the great artistic contributions of the region, while transmitting the exceptional character of each country represented.

This exhibition is organised by Selections Magazine.
