

Inauguration of the "Concept Store" Gallery "Tunis seen by Zoubeir Turki

26/02/2020

Tunis, the City of Culture In presence of M. Mohamed Zinelabidine, Minister of Cultural Affairs, the new "Concept Store" gallery of the House of Arts of Belvedere was inaugurated with the "Tunis seen by Zoubeir Turki" exhibition on Tuesday February 25. 2020.

This exhibition offers to see a very interesting and rare works of late Zoubeir Turki and will last till Thursday March 26. 2020.

anniversary of his death. The exhibition was a good idea following which the best works of late Zoubeir Turki were put together to show the richness and diversity of the works of this great artist.

"Tunis seen by Zoubeir Turki" would not have seen the light without the initiative of the Ministry of Cultural Affairs and the hard work done by Mrs. Samah Habachi, also director of the House of Arts of Belvedere, who has chosen this new space to bring into life the work of renowned artists, including one of the founders of the Tunis School, late Zoubeir Turki.

Mugs, postcards, diaries, bags,... small presents that we can offer to our relatives and friends.

"Zoubeir Turki is the founder of the House of Arts of Belvedere in the 70s", said Mrs.

Samah Habachi who paid tribute to this great artist on the occasion of the commemoration of the 10 The works of Zoubeir Turki were always around themes very dear to him; the medina and its craftsmen and were always witnesses on his art which traces the popular chronicle of this Man of the medina.

This exhibition represents an interesting journey into the world of drawing and painting