

Art Alert: Georges Bahgory's 'Nostalgic Dreams' in Al Masar Gallery

Egyptian artist Georges Bahgory showcases his latest collection in an exhibition titled 'Nostalgic Dreams' in Cairo's Al Masar Gallery

Egyptian artist Georges Bahgory will be displaying his latest collection in an exhibition titled 'Nostalgic Dreams' in Zamalek's Al Masar Gallery.

The exhibition will open on Sunday, 19 January, and will showcase works by Bahgory that have been inspired by Egypt's problems, as well as past memories recalled by the artist.

Through his paintings, Bahgory pays homage to a country in which he still believes, through celebrating its simple charms in a colourful, nostalgic exploration. He also glorifies its people, the ordinary individuals, from bread sellers to puppet makers, who he views as Egypt's "real heroes."

Programme:

Sunday, 19 January - Sunday, 23 February

Al Masar Gallery, Baehler's Mansion 157b

26 July Street, Side Entrance on Isaac Jacob Street (ground floor), Zamalek, Cairo
