

VideoDestinationsBookingsShopSign InAfrica › Egypt › Alexandria › Attractions

ALEXANDRIA ATTRACTIONS

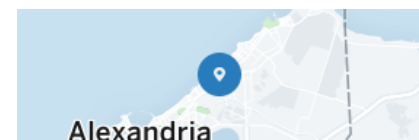

Mahmoud Said Museum

Museum in Alexandria

He might be little known outside his home country, but Mahmoud Said (1897–1964) was one of Egypt’s finest 20th-century artists. A judge by profession, he moonlighted as a painter and became a key member of a group of sophisticates devoted to forging an Egyptian artistic identity in the 1920s

LOCATION

6 Sharia Mohammed Pasha Said,
Gianaclis
Alexandria, Egypt

© Mapbox © OpenStreetMap contributors

and '30s. This museum presents about 40 of his works in the beautiful Italianate villa in which he once lived. The museum has been closed for restoration for a few years so check with the tourist office before making the trip out here.

CLASSIC ACTIVITY

Alexandria Independent Adventure

$249

LEARN MORE >

From the San Stefano tram stop (line 2), cross the tracks and go up the steps to the raised road (opposite the huge mall). Go right and Sharia Mohammed Pasha Said is a short distance away on the left.

Suggest an edit.

