

Darghouth, Tagreed

Lebanon, 1979

Tagreed Darghouth (b. Saida, 1979) is a Lebanese painter. She obtained a degree in Fine Arts from the Lebanese University in Beirut, as well as a diploma in Art Education. She participated in the Ayloul Summer Academy at Darat Al-Funoun in Saleh Barakat Gallery in Beirut (2000 and 2001), which was led by the Syrian-German artist Marwan Kassab Bashi. She then went on to study Art Space in Dubai (2019). She has participated in Space Art at the Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Arts Décoratifs in Paris. In 2004, Darghouth had her first solo exhibition in Beirut, Brussels, Buenos Aires, Doha and Still Features, at Zico House in Beirut. It was followed by another solo, Falling Parts, at the Goethe Institute in Beirut in 2006. Darghouth has since had several solo exhibitions in Agiat Art Gallery, including Mirror, Mirror! (2008), Fair & Lovely (2010), in Dubai (2010), Subtitled: With Narratives (2011), Rehearsals (2013), and Vision Machines, Shall You See Me Better Now? (2015).
