

ADVERTISEMENT

ARTS • GALLERIES

Frieze London and Frieze Masters Announce 2024's Participating Galleries and Programming

Cookies Settings

Accept All Cookies

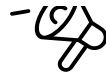

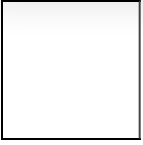

By clicking "Accept All Cookies", you agree to the storing of cookies on your device to enhance site navigation, analyze site usage, and assist in our marketing efforts.

Visitors at Frieze London in 2023. Photo courtesy of Linda Ny Lind/Frieze

As the art world copes with what feels like an abbreviated summer break and a crowded fall calendar looming, Frieze announced details for its upcoming London fairs, coming up on October 9-12 in The Regent's Park. The 2024 Frieze fair in London will feature more than 160 galleries from forty-three countries, including some of the

By clicking "Accept All Cookies", you agree to the storing of cookies on your device to enhance site navigation, analyze site usage, and assist in our marketing efforts.

Sign Up For Our Daily Newsletter

Email Address	SIGN UP
---------------	---------

See all of our newsletters

What to expect at Frieze London 2024

Frieze London's newly announced big change is the fresh floorplan by design practice A Studio Between. The new layout will give prominence to the fair's curated sections, placing more emphasis on artists and discoveries.

ADVERTISEMENT

By clicking "Accept All Cookies", you agree to the storing of cookies on your device to enhance site navigation, analyze site usage, and assist in our marketing efforts.

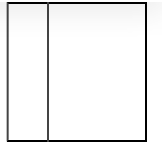

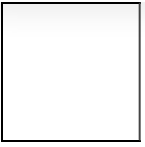

Another interesting curated selection that will return this year is “Artist-to-artist,” which mounts six solo presentations chosen by world-renowned artists. This year’s edition will feature Appau Jnr Boakye-Yiadom, chosen by Glenn Ligon (Champ Lacombe, Biarritz); Rob Davis, selected by Rashid Johnson (Broadway, New York); Nengi Omuku selected by Yinka Shonibare (Pippy Houldsworth Gallery, London); Massinissa Selmani chosen by Zineb Sedira (Selma Feriani Gallery, Tunis); Magda Stawarska chosen by Lubaina Himid (Yamamoto Keiko Rochaix, London); and Peter Uka chosen by Hurvin Anderson (Mariane Ibrahim, Chicago, Paris, Mexico City).

SEE ALSO: Observer’s Guide to 2024’s Must-Visit July Art Fairs

Finally, connecting material and some narratives that have become increasingly present in the contemporary art scene in recent years, Frieze created a new themed section, “Smoke,” curated by Pablo José Ramírez (Curator, Hammer Museum, Los Angeles) and dedicated to ceramic works that explore diasporic and Indigenous histories. The section draws its title from El Animal Humo (the Smoke Animal), Humberto Ak’abal’s story of an enigmatic creature made of smoke that emanates from the soil as a sublime and disturbing manifestation of nature. Featured artists include Manuel Chavajay (Pedro Cera, Madrid, Lisbon), Lucía Pizzani (Cecilia Brunson Projects, London), Christine Howard Sandoval (parrasch heijnen, Los Angeles), Ayla Tavares connections across art history.

By clicking “Accept All Cookies”, you agree to the storing of cookies on your device to enhance site navigation, analyze site usage, and assist in our marketing efforts.

By clicking “Accept All Cookies”, you agree to the storing of cookies on your device to enhance site navigation, analyze site usage, and assist in our marketing efforts.

The fair will present long-time exhibitors such as Galerie Chene!l, Richard Green, Hauser & Wirth, Lehmann Maupin, Skarstedt and Axel Vervoordt, as well as leading Korean dealers such as Arario Gallery, Gana Art, Hakgojae Gallery and Johyun Gallery. This year, there's a solid contingent of galleries dealing in ancient Asian art on the roster including Gisèle Croës s.a, Rasti Fine Art, Carlton Rochell Asian Art, Rossi & Rossi, Tenzing Asian Art and Thomsen Gallery. First-time participants include Afridi (London), Bijl-Van Urk Masterpaintings (Alkmaar), Galatea (Salvador, São Paulo), Galerie Léage (Paris), Tilton Gallery (New York) and Trias Art Experts (Munich).

In terms of thematic sections, Frieze Masters will continue with the "Studio" section curated by British art historian and curator Sheena Wagstaff. This section focuses on practices that illuminate the interconnections between our civilization's past and future. The line-up includes Isabella Ducrot, Nathalie Du Pasquier, Shirazeh Houshiary and Doris Salcedo

The other curated section, "Spotlight," is curated by Valerie Cassel Oliver, curator of modern and contemporary art at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and previously senior curator at the Contemporary Arts Museum in Houston, Texas. The section will focus on solo presentations by 20th-century artists, particularly overlooked artists and the Royal Academy of Arts; “Van Gogh: Poets and Lovers” at the National Gallery London; “Mike Kelley: Ghost and Spirit” and the majestic Mire Lee’s Turbine Hall Commission at Tate Modern; Hew Locke at the British Museum and “Haegue Yang: Leap Year” at the Hayward Gallery.

By clicking "Accept All Cookies", you agree to the storing of cookies on your device to enhance site navigation, analyze site usage, and assist in our marketing efforts.

By clicking “Accept All Cookies”, you agree to the storing of cookies on your device to enhance site navigation, analyze site usage, and assist in our marketing efforts.

A complete list of exhibitors and more information about 2024 programming can be found on the fair’s website.

Filed Under: Arts, Art Fairs, Galleries, Alison Jacques, Jo Messer, Julia Fuentesal, Jaime Welsh, Nir Altman, Rita Ponce De León, Littlewhitehead (Craig Little & Blake Whitehead), Pablo M. Arenillas, Keti Kapanadze, Nat Faulkner, Kelsey Isaacs, Appau Jnr Boakye-Yiadom, Rob Davis, Nengi Omuku, Peter Uka, Pablo José Ramírez, Manuel Chavajay, Ayla Tavares, Isabella Ducrot, Nathalie Du Pasquier, Shirazeh Houshiary, Kulim Kim, Balraj Khanna, Nabil Nahas, Nil Yalter, Mire Lee, Arario Gallery, Brunette Coleman, Clima, Contemporary Arts Museum Houston, El Apartamento, Esther Schipper, Galerie Chenel, Gallery Hyundai, Gana Art, Gianni Manhattan, Hakgojae Gallery, Hayward Gallery, Johyun Gallery, Madragoa, Mariane Ibrahim, Maureen Paley, Nicoletti, Pedro Cera, Perrotin, Rossi & Rossi, Stephen Friedman Gallery, Sun Woo, Hurvin Anderson, Noe Martínez, Christine Howard Sandoval, Valerie Cassel Oliver, Emalin Gallery, Gallery Artbeat, Gallery Vacancy, Pippy Houldsworth Gallery, Zineb Sedira, Lygia Clark, Sonia Boyce, Hew Locke, Hauser & Wirth, Thomas Dane Gallery, Doris Salcedo, Carlos Ishikawa, Galerie Thaddaeus Ropac, Tilton Gallery, Lubaina Himid, Axel Vervoordt, Michael Craig-Martin, Haegue Yang, Patron, Sheena Wagstaff, Whitechapel Gallery, Yinka Shonibare, Sprüth Magers, Victoria Miro, Tina Kim Gallery, Almine Rech, National Gallery London, Royal Academy Of Arts, Skarstedt, Glenn Ligon, Lisson Gallery,

By clicking “Accept All Cookies”, you agree to the storing of cookies on your device to enhance site navigation, analyze site usage, and assist in our marketing efforts.

electricity bill by up t...

Sponsored | Smart Energy

This Simple Tip Cuts Electric Bills by Up to 90%

Sponsored | Smart Energy

About: Access All...

Sponsored | Smart TV

[Gallery] She Never Married And Now We Know Why

Sponsored | DailySportX

mouse, play it for 1...

Play for free. No Installation.
Sponsored | navy.quest

Why Is Everyone excited about this $59 New Blood Sugar...

Sponsored | TrackPro 2.0

Former Russian Prime Minister Caught on

Prince Harry and Meghan Markle's New

Woody Allen's Waning Wisdom

By clicking "Accept All Cookies", you agree to the storing of cookies on your device to enhance site navigation, analyze site usage, and assist in our marketing efforts.

Flight attendant didn't let 87-year-old woman into business class....

Sponsored | loansocieties.com

Learn the Secrets to Applying for PhD Scholarships in USA

Sponsored | Search Ads

The Best Online University Degrees For Career Advancement

Sponsored | Home Information - Al...

By clicking "Accept All Cookies", you agree to the storing of cookies on your device to enhance site navigation, analyze site usage, and assist in our marketing efforts.