Six Years of War in Gallery by Nizar Sabour

Artist Nizar Sabour presented at Khan Asaad Pasha more than 120 works about the six years of war, as witnesses of our memories and pain. A large collection of paintings expressed the pain experienced by our beloved Syria and its people.

Mr. Bassam Abu-Ghannam, Deputy Minister of Culture, said about the gallery: "It combines sadness and joy to reflect the suffering of our people, which lasted six years and is leading to the victories of our valiant army nowadays in Aleppo. Artist Sabor offered a new and unique thing to fine art through such beautiful paintings of our current reality."

In turn, Dr. Nizar Sabour expressed his pleasure to present his art in the city of Damascus, that holds great human meanings. His 120 works were completed during the crisis inspired by sensations and feelings of sad and happy.

Finally, critic Saad Qasim signed his book “Nizar Sabour .. man and painting” which talked about the artist Sabor during the last six years and his insistence on regeneration ar relying on the Syrian artistic heritage in all its forms.

Artist Nizar Sabour was born in Latakia in 1958 and a graduate of the College of Fine Arts in Damascus. He won several international awards.
